

Douglas W. Pinsky, Esq.
Of Counsel, Chowdhury & Georgakis, P.C.
Washington, DC
Telephone: +1 (832) 314-4880
E-mail: dpinsky@cgiplaw.com

CITIZENSHIP	United States Citizen
BAR MEMBERSHIPS	Member of the New York State bar (2001), U.S. Supreme Court bar (2007) Registered to practice before the United States Patent & Trademark Office (2000)
EDUCATION	Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, Yeshiva University New York, NY J.D., magna cum laude , 2000 (top 5% of graduating class) Additional Honors: • Order of the Coif • Jacob Burns Scholarship (merit-based tuition scholarship) Journal: Cardozo Arts & Entertainment Law Journal
	University of Chicago Chicago, IL M.A. in Philosophy, 1989 Additional Honors: • Century Fellowship (merit-based tuition scholarship) • DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service) Summer Scholarship
	University of Oxford Oxford, England Honours B.A./M.A. in Philosophy, Politics and Economics, 1988/1997 Additional Honors: • National Science Foundation Graduate Fellowship, Honorable Mention
	Yale University New Haven, CT B.S. in Engineering Mechanics, magna cum laude , with distinction in the major, 1985 (B.S. degree program accredited by Accreditation Board of Engineering and Technology) Additional Honors: • Tau Beta Pi (National Engineering Honor Society) • Wohlenberg Prize (for outstanding performance in physical sciences/engineering)
WORK EXPERIENCE	Chowdhury & Georgakis, P.C. Washington, DC Of Counsel (2011-Present) • Prepare and prosecute patent and trademark applications, prepare legal opinions, perform legal research and writing, and counsel clients on intellectual property matters • Representative technical fields include the electrical and mechanical arts, computer hardware and software, and medical devices
	SanDisk Israel Kfar Saba, Israel Patent Portfolio Development Director (2007- 2010) (Trained at U.S. parent company headquarters for initial six months.) • Responsible for patent portfolio and managed patent department of key R&D subsidiary of leading global semiconductor company • Supervised outside and in-house counsel in patent application drafting and prosecution • Performed patentability analyses and participated in patent review committees evaluating inventions for patentability and strategic/commercial value • Led in-house team in major invention harvesting campaign • Trained engineers of all R&D divisions of subsidiary • Developed corporate-wide IP policy • Representative technologies included flash memory/controllers, mobile handsets, and audio-video devices

Fitzpatrick, Cella, Harper & Scinto New York, NY and Washington, DC
Associate (2000-2007), Summer Associate and Law Clerk (1999)

- Drafted and prosecuted patent applications in mechanical and electro-mechanical arts
- Prepared legal opinions and counseled clients
- Performed legal research and writing in support of litigation
- Representative technologies included ink jet printers, semiconductor fabrication, speech recognition/synthesis, computerized business methods, and medical devices

Ryuka Intellectual Property Law Firm Tokyo, Japan
Patent Application Editor (1997-1999). (Worked remotely from U.S.)

- Edited and provided quality control for patent applications
- Advised technical translators
- Representative technical fields included electrical and mechanical engineering, physics, and electronic commerce

University of Chicago Chicago, IL
Writing Instructor and Tutor (1991, 1995-1997)

- Taught undergraduate courses in academic and professional writing
- Taught students one-on-one as college writing tutor
- Completed teacher training course in preparation for instructor and tutor positions

Lee International Patent and Law Office Seoul, South Korea
Legal Writer and Editor (1992)

- Responsible for editing all English-language client correspondence
- Wrote and edited articles for company newsletter and intellectual property law journal
- Edited book on Korean intellectual property law

Yonsei University Seoul, South Korea
Instructor in English as a Foreign Language (1991-1992)

- Planned and taught classes in foreign language institute for university students and professionals

ANSER (Analytic Services Inc.) Arlington, VA
Research Analyst (1985-1986)

- Conducted research on and analyses of military defense systems
- Wrote part of study for Congress on the Strategic Defense Initiative
- Instrumental in development of computer simulation models of defense systems

LEGAL INTERNSHIPS

U.N. Commission on Civil and Political Rights New York, NY
Intern, 1999

- Performed legal research and wrote report for use by Commission in official assessment of Canada's compliance with human rights treaty

Lawyers Committee for Human Rights New York, NY
Intern, 1998

- Performed legal research and wrote report on political asylum for forced military conscripts

LANGUAGES

French, German, Hebrew