

Robert C. Jahnke, Esq.
Principal, Chowdhury & Georgakis, P.C.
Post Office Box 90277
Austin, TX 78709-0277
Telephone: (512) 680-8866
E-mail: rjahnke@cgiplaw.com

BAR
MEMBERSHIPS

Member of the Texas bar
Registered to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office

EDUCATION

The University of Texas School of Law Austin, TX
Juris Doctor, Honors, 1998

The University of Texas Austin, TX
Master of Arts, 1995
Specialization: Condensed Matter Theory
Master's Thesis: "Fractional Wannier-Stark Ladders"

The University of Illinois at Chicago Chicago, IL
Bachelor of Arts, 1991
Major: Physics

WORK EXPERIENCE

Chowdhury & Georgakis, P.C. Austin, TX
Principal (2006 – Present)

- Assist clients in creating and implementing strategies to acquire, develop, protect, enforce, and commercialize intellectual property and technology
- Prepare and prosecute patents in the electrical, computer software, telecommunications, nanotechnology, and semiconductor arts and advise clients on patentability and infringement issues
- Structure, draft, and negotiate a wide variety of intellectual property transactions involving software, hardware, telecommunications, semiconductors, and Internet products and services

Jahnke Technology Law Austin, TX
(2003-2006)

- Functioned as virtual general counsel for small and medium-sized clients in regards to transactional and intellectual property matters, including copyright, trademark, patent, trade secret, open source licensing, and privacy law matters
- Structured, drafted, and negotiated letters of intent, term sheets, and agreements in connection with technology transactions involving intellectual property matters, including patent license agreements, development agreements, inbound and outbound technology license agreements, distribution agreements, reseller agreements, joint ventures, strategic alliances, trademark license agreements, equity and asset purchase agreements, service agreements, nondisclosure agreements, consulting agreements, e-commerce and Internet-related agreements, and settlement and release agreements

Conley, Rose & Tayon, P.C. Austin, TX
Associate (1998-2003)

- Prepared and prosecuted patents primarily in the field of semiconductor processes and devices; developed patent programs for small and medium-sized clients; and prepared patentability and noninfringement opinions
- Drafted software license agreements, patent license agreements and other intellectual property agreements
- Conducted intellectual property audits and due diligence in connection with technology acquisitions
- Counseled clients on trademark and copyright matters, including issues related to the Anti-Cybersquatting Consumer Protection Act and the Digital Millennium Copyright Act and issues related to open source licensing
- Supported litigation matters involving intellectual property infringement and breach of contract issues

Summer Clerk (1997)

Baker Botts, L.L.P. Austin, TX
Summer Clerk (1997)